Otto van deme Runne, resident at Altendorf, in the year 1475, sold to the church sovereign at Osten, Pastor Hinrike Yercke, a "Renthe (lease without end) to eneme ewigen Erfkope" and named with it his wife Mette and his son and heir Johan.

The land piece in the agreement is described: Wedemegut in the West, Wechverdeel in Osten, from the Weghe up to the cabbage field of Gerd Sogen. Note: Witnesses-Cousin Erick van deme Runne and Hinrick Düreyar of Stade...1500 Sogen wrote "Soyen" (This and That)

4. Knight Dietrich von Rönne¹, born 1450 in Osten Parish; died Unknown.

Notes for Knight Dietrich von Rönne:

In the "Monumenta Nobilitatus Antiquae Familiarum Illustrium..." to the memory of the very old, well known highly noble family line, especially of the high noble Knighthood in the Dukedom Bremen and Verden", written by the Co-rector Luneberg Mushard (Bremen 1708) we find interesting information about the judgeship of Osten; to wit...

In the year 1450, had lived
Diederich von \Rönne\ and has the judgeship in the parish of Osten
from the Archbishop Gerharo to tenure accepted.

Note: (Vid. MSC Archi-Episcopi Joh. Roden f.m.103)

The Archbishop Gerhard III, of the Count Hoya lineage, from 1442 to 1463, had ruled. After the inglorious departure of the Lords of Ostenhagen out of the Osten area, the industrious descendants of the family von \Rönne\ were installed, who lived in the area approximately a hundred years.

The office of the judge remained 200 years in the family's possession and fell to the oldest son and heirs of the Lord Judges, who, all had their ancestral seat at Altendorf. In 1648, was the entitlement awarded to the Swedes who immediately seated in parish Osten new judges of their choice.

Toward the end of the 15th Century, 24 "Frees", out of the parish Osten belonging to farming businesses in Altendorf, Isensee and Hüll, had to pay the refuge treasure tax, a middle ages land tax, to the Bremen archbishop.
